

Nomination for the EPS Hannes Alfvén Prize 2024

“For outstanding contributions to plasma physics”

The prize was established by the EPS Plasma Physics Division in 2000 and is awarded for research achievements which have either already shaped the field of plasma physics or have demonstrated the potential to do so in future. To recognize collaborative research, a group of up to three individual scientists may be nominated.

The previous Alfvén Prize laureates are:

R Balescu (2000)
V Shafranov (2001)
M Rosenbluth (2002)
V E Fortov (2003)
J W Connor, R J Hastie and J B Taylor (2004)
M G Haines, T W L Sandford and V Smirnov (2005)
P H Rebut (2006)
F Wagner (2007)
L Chen (2008)
J Meyer-ter-Vehn (2009)
A H Boozer and J Nührenberg (2010)
P Diamond, A Hasegawa and K Mima (2011)
E Parker (2012)
M Porkolab (2013)
P Mora (2014)
N Fisch (2015)
S Bulanov and H Zohm (2016)
K A Razumova (2017)
A R Bell (2018)
V Malka and T Tajima (2019)
A Pouquet (2020)
S I Krasheninnikov (2021)
X Garbet (2022)
P Chen, J B Rosenzweig and C J Joshi (2023)

The closing date for nominations for the 2024 prize is Monday, November 6th, 2023 (23:59 Central European Time)

The completed nomination form should be sent to the Chair of the Plasma Physics Division Board of the European Physical Society, Prof Kristel Crombé, Ghent University and Royal Military Academy Brussels, by electronic mail: Kristel.Crombe@ugent.be

The board treats all nominations in strict confidence and requests that nominators inform only the nominee(s) and the persons asked to provide letters of support
